Explore Ahmedabad

- Ahmedabad, the epicentre of Gujarati culture, has a thriving cultural tradition.
- The city is also known for being the first heritage city of India.
- People perform the Gujarati folk dance known as Garba during the nine nights of Navratri in various locations throughout the city.
- Don't miss the fiery and spicy Kathiyawadi food of Ahmedabad.
- Easily accessible from Ahmedabad are some prominent wildlife reserves, highland resorts, and natural splendour.

Hutheesing Jain Temple

An old religion with a significant following in Ahmedabad is Jainism, which is supported by the city's numerous derasars. These derasars have been constructed in a variety of sizes and with incredible designs. Due to its holiness and tranquilly, Hutheesing Jain Temple, a sacred Jain place of devotion, attracts a large throng. The prominent Jain temple is located in the Bardolpura neighbourhood outside the Delhi Gate. The Hutheesing Jain Temple is an architectural wonder made of white marble and is embellished with exquisite stone sculptures.

TIMINGS

8 Am - 5 PM

Sidi Saiyyed Mosque

The Sidi Sayed Mosque is renowned for its stunning jali windows, which are so finely crafted that they resemble spider webs and portray the intricately entwined branches of the "tree of life," which may best be seen from the road that runs around the back of the mosque. The exquisite latticework on the mosque's central arch is also missing, drawing attention to the major magnificent piece on the back wall. The mosque is still used for religious purposes.

Kankaria Lake

In Gujrat, Kankaria Lake is located in Ahmedabad's southeast, close to the Maninagar neighbourhood. According to reports, it is the second-largest lake in the city. The lakefront that has been created around Kankaria lake is full with tourist attractions like the zoo, kids city, toy train, hot air balloon ride, water rides, and other amusements.

TIMINGS

4 AM - 8 AM

9 AM - 10 PM

Sabarmati Riverfront

The Sabarmati Riverfront, a 22km planned promenade, was created in 2005 when the cityscape and the river Sabarmati were renovated. Although there are boating docks and temporary exhibition halls built along the river, regular walkers and joggers give the path its due justice.

A permanent flower garden with more than 330 native and exotic flower species has been envisioned as being stretched across around 45000 sq mts. In the evening, it is the ideal location to relax and unwind.
