Tawang

Tawang, a little village, is filled with tourist attractions, making it an enticing destination for vacationers. These include bustling Buddhist monasteries, high mountain routes, war graves, and picturesque lakes. Two of Tawang's top tourist destinations are the biggest monastery in India and the Tawang War Memorial, which was built to remember the soldiers who gave their lives in the Sino-Indian War.

Namdapha National Park

The third-largest park in India is a biodiversity hotspot. You can hire a local guide from Deban and hike through the rainforest to get to Lisu Village. Here, one can observe the Red Pandas. Red panda's preferred habitat, Arshu, is also accessible. This place is six hours' drive from the Dibrugarh Airport in Assam.

Sela Pass

The Sela Pass mountain pass in Arunachal Pradesh, which is situated at a height of 13,700 feet above sea level, is one of the most serene places to visit. Sela Pass, which is reported to be encircled by a total of 101 lakes, is highly revered by Buddhists. The most picturesque and gorgeous blue Sela Lake serves as the primary magnet for tourists to Arunachal Pradesh.

Roing

Roing means cool and rejuvenating. True to its name, this town is situated next to the Dibang River, which enhances the beauty and tranquilly of the area as it passes by. For those who enjoy culture, hiking, and history, Roing is a gold mine. You may also go on a hike to various locations to see a colourful sunset or go to a lake to enjoy boating in the heart of a thick forest and take in the magnificence of nature. Mayudia, Bhismanagar Fort, Mehao Lake, Sally Lake, Nijomaghat, Rukmini Nati, etc. are some examples.

Bomdila

Bomdila is a small, isolated town that offers a glimpse of the local culture and heritage away from the bustle of the city. Experience the town's natural beauty as it is surrounded by apple orchards, a beautiful green valley, and hills covered in snow. Bomdila Monastery, Sissa Orchid Sanctuary, Gompas, Eaglenest Wildlife Sanctuary, Bomdila View Point, and many other places are among the tourist attractions in this area. Bomdila offers you the chance to discover the wildlife, tradition, and beauty of nature all in one location.
