

Lonavala

Lonavala is a well-liked weekend getaway for residents of Mumbai and Pune. This mountainous town's temperate climate provides relief from the oppressive summer heat. It also acts as a starting point for those desiring to travel to the well-known, historic Buddhist rock-cut caves of Bhaja and Karla. For the traveller who is concerned about their health, there is a vital Yoga facility close by.

Explore Lonavala

- In the Pune region of the Indian State of Maharashtra, Lonavala serves as both a town and a hill resort.
- It lies 96 kilometres east of Mumbai and 64 kilometres west of the present-day city of Pune.
- Chikki is a hard candy that is created in Lonavala and is a popular sweet food item made from a mixture of nuts and sugar.
- Lonavala is a significant stop on the rail line that runs between Mumbai and Pune.
- Lonavala's rocky topography is perfect for hiking and trekking.

Lonavala Lake

This is one of Maharashtra's most visited locations. One of the most beautiful and captivating lakes in the area is Lonavala Lake. Many people come to this lake, especially during the monsoon season.

Bhushi Dam

This location is popular with locals from the surrounding villages, who flock there in large numbers on weekends during the rainy season due to the overflowing water that flows over the steps of Bhushi Dam and then across the rocky landscape.

Tiger's Leap

This location was given the unique name Tiger's Leap because of how similar its shape is to a tiger leaping into a valley. It is a cliff top with a sheer drop of more than 650 m and provides a thorough view of the Western Ghats and highlands.

Wax Museum

Sunil Kandaloor, a Kerala-born wax artist who is 38 years old, founded The Wax Museum. It contains sculptures of many famous people, including Benazir Bhutto, Michael Jackson, Kapil Dev, Adolf Hitler, and AR Rahman. Chhatrapati Shivaji's image is the museum's centrepiece.

Rajmachi Fort

The old ruins and advantageous location of Rajmachi Fort make it a very well-known tourist destination. It is made up of two fortresses—Shrivardhan and Manaranjan—and is encircled by a broad plateau.

Valvan Dam

The Valvan Dam near Lonavala in Maharashtra is an almost ideal evening trip location because of its lush flora and serene surroundings. The Khopoli Power Station, operated by Tata Power and situated at the foothills of the Sayadri Mountains, uses the enormous water barrage for the production of power.

Duke's Nose

Named after the Duke of Wellington, the area is well known for its scenic surroundings and hiking. Visitors to the landmark frequently come for the panoramic views of the stunning Sahyadri Ranges, the magnificent valleys, and the thick woods that blanket the Sahyadris.

Karla Caves

This location, which was carved out around 2000 years ago, is made up of a sizable number of stunning Chaityas (halls) and Viharas (monasteries), which reflect on a voyage through time and tell fascinating tales. In order to get to the cave, one must ascend nearly 150 stairs.
